Round 2

RULES:

- 3 Games, PAR scoring, max 15 points - Sudden death at 14 - 14
The winner is decided on points, not games. Team winner is the one with the most points.
- Teams have been split into 3 pools of 6. There will be an initial league round of 5 games and then a split of 2 teams from each pool to make up 3 new pools. E.g. Top 2 from each pool makes new pool A etc.
- Each player to pay Vaal Triangle R100 before the start of the league.
Account details - Nedbank Check 174837, No: 1748369849. Use your name as reference.
- Each point scored counts. Winning team has most points.
- Give scorecards (even if games are outstanding) to Graham Hocknell or hand in to Gawie at the office.
- A captain has been appointed but can be changed by the team. Please inform Graham H as to the name if you decide to change.
- Games to start at 18.00. Court allocation at the office. Playing order is 5, 4, 3, 2, 1 but can change with arrangement between the Captains
- If players are unable to play on the night they can arrange a replacement (List of reserves on the notice board). Reserves must be of similar strength
Please try and play the game within a week of the original date. All games have to be completed for round 1 by the 6th December.
- Games do not qualify as challenges for the VT ladder
- Teams may move a player one position from week to week.
- The double Yellow dot ball will be used.
- Captains need to ensure that all games have markers/referees as this just makes the whole process less disputable.
- Any issues please contact Graham on 083 468 1380
